See what Session One Parents Had to Say:

“OMG, my son is eating spinach. He can’t get enough of the strawberry dressing!”

“Thank you for an amazing week of cooking yummy food!). The girls had a great time! youngest got her confidence up and my loved being in the kitchen and trying new the week went on, she was making things inspired by your dinner menu. It was

(and My oldest things. As for lunch, great!”

“My kids much more

started this camp as beginners with not cooking experience. Both have become much confident using knives and measuring tools and cooking on the stovetop during this camp. They are excited and proud to taste their creations.”

“This camp was loads of fun. Spending time with my son, cooking delicious healthy food for our family was a true joy. We learned a lot about cooking technique and healthy eating to boot!”

Campers at work, ready to eat, and enjoying their food! All from home.
